Last call for the ECI Conference in Prague 2023

Dear Eurlyaid Members !

The internationally renowned EURLYAID Early Childhood Intervention Conference is taking place on May 15th and 16th, 2023 in the beautiful Central European city of Prague. We warmly invite you to this not-to-be-missed event.

The conference is centred on the theme of transdisciplinary collaboration. It promises to be a captivating experience, bringing together esteemed experts from around the world who specialize in supporting families of children with disabilities or serious illnesses. You can find full details of the program here.

With over 300 participants already registered, this is a unique opportunity to meet colleagues from around the world and expand your professional network.

Until April 26th you can register for the conference here – and don't forget to also reserve your place at the evening dinner party.

For your convenience, we can offer you discounted accommodation at the Vienna

House Diplomat Prague hotel, where the conference will take place, and at the Prague Marriott Hotel.

You can also keep up to speed with the latest news and updates about the conference by following the event's Facebook page.

Join us in Prague to gain valuable information and inspiration for your work, establish new contacts, and connect with colleagues from Europe and beyond.

We very much look forward to welcome you on this extraordinary event.

On behalf of the conference organizing team,
Jitka Barlová
EURLYAID Board Member and Director of the Prague branch of the Association for Early Intervention (Společnost pro ranou péči).

Greetings

Board of Eurlyaid.
