

EURLY AID NEWSLETTER : April 2018

Dear members,

Eurllyaid 2018 conference

Following the newsletter we sent to you in March informing you about the conference in Kharkiv we are very pleased to announce that the call for abstracts is now open. You can find the link here:

<http://conference.eurllyaid.eu/call-for-papers/>

The will take place from October 10-12, 2018.

The general conference website is here:

<http://conference.eurllyaid.eu/>

The organising- and scientific committees have worked hard on the program. We strive to offer you an interesting variety on presentations and workshops, moments to socialize with old and new colleagues and exchange information.

We kindly invite you to visit the website regularly to check for further details.

Keynote speakers:

There will be 6 keynote presentations.

The opening keynote will be a joint presentation: Yaroslava Nikanshyn and Noor van Loen, parents, and Marilyn Espe-Sherwindt and Tetyana Mishchuk, professionals. There will also be a keynote from Carl Dunst, Naira Avetisyan, Anna Kurkuruza, José Boavida, Emily Vargas-Baron and a workshop on attachment and trauma from internationally recognised Dr. Karen Treisman. Please visit the website for more details.

We invite you to register and book your conference ticket on the website.

We are looking forward to see you in Kharkiv!